Introducing: DJ Winter Santos

As a professional DJ and groundbreaking music stylist / director,

New York City-based Winter Santos creates and delivers music concepts that are indelible, proficient and, as one veteran DJ put it, prolific. From deep house to nu jazz and from lounge eclectic to world and new disco, her music selections are well-versed, making her one of the most in-demand DJ's today. Her selections have ignited venues and arenas from New York

City to Miami and from Spain to Puerto Rico.

Spinning for well over a decade, Winter's ability to ingeniously focus on the connections between music, crowd and environment has garnered her a venerable following and clientele ranging from Issey Miyake, Ralph Lauren and the Vikram Chatwal Hotels to John "Jellybean" Benitez, DJ Moni, Tony Touch and Osunlade. She served as Radio Producer on WBAI's The Liquid Sound Lounge under the tutelage of her mentor and host, Jeannie Hopper. She was a guest on radio shows such as Daily Session and Future Beat Radio. Her foray into radio, as well as her DJ experience, led her to the Institute of Audio Research, where she graduated at the top of her class. Winter Santos is proof that mixing skills, musical vision, beauty and chic fashionable sensibility can and does exist in one package. Her following of trend-setters and taste-makers can attest to that.
